HOME HAPPENINGS

-It is not easy to find people who remember a winter like this one.

-W. L. Shoaf last week purchased a fine young stallion in Ravenna. -Local dealers report heavy sales of valentines and postal cards Wed-

-Local Masons and their families will enjoy a social in Argus hall this (Friday) evening.

-The Wimodaughsis Club was entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. C. C. Fowler. A part of the program related to St. Valentine's day.

-A merry company of friends was pleasantly entertained Wednesday night by Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Manchester at their home near Dublin.

-Many Canfield women are suffering from frosted feet, due to the wearing of thin shoes during the severe weather of the past six weeks.

-A son was born last Sunday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Schrum of this township. Mr. Schrum is employed as farm manager at the county infirmary.

-Kindly remember, friends, that the Dispatch is always glad to receive local news items. When you go visiting or have visitors do not hesitate to let us know it.

M. E. Church was enjoyed by a large number of people. The receipts amounted to about $30.

-Doc Bryson says he attended the Youngstown auto show Tuesday and Youngstown auto show lucsday and bought a $5,000 ten-cylinder touring representing the Ohio State Commiscar and next summer intends to design his sion for the Blind, will deliver an advisor of the Blind, will delive an advisor of the Blind, will deliver an adv friends mile a second joy rides.

-A frozen pipe leading to the well on the union school grounds cut off much importance it is hoped there the water supply for the boiler of the will be a large attendance. heating plant and school was dismissed Wednesday forenoon while the boller cooled and was filled with wat-

-John McNabb, who went to the county infirmary from Youngstown five years ago, died Monday of a complication of diseases, aged 66. Funeral services were held Wednesday and burial was made in the infirmary cemetery.

-Snow Sunday night greatly improved the sleighing. The slipping, however, has not been real firstclass this winter on account of the intense cold which keeps the snow dry, allowing it to blow off macadam roads infrarary. Ban. 22 taken to the county and drift in others.

A. Supply what is known as the Dun- erable improvement despite the fact ning homestead east of the village that he is nearly 88 years of age and for $315. The old house is being torn down and Mr. Supply will farm the land of which there is a little ing in Montana and Indiana are unmore. more than two acres.

-Prof. C. H. Hyman of the Normal college faculty a few days since received a telegram offering him the position of instructor of science in the Marietta high school at a salary of $1,000 a year, but he declined, preferring to remain here.

-During the cold weather of the past six weeks, L. B. Curtis, local trouble man for the Youngstown Telephone Co., has been kept going early and late to keep wires broken mains will be laid to rest in the f by the frost repaired. Climbing poles ily lot in the Ellsworth cemetery. when the mercury is eight or ten defew people could find pleasure in but Mr. Curtis does not seem to mind it

-About twenty Canfield people at tended the reading given by Mrs. Isabelle Garghill Beecher in the Westminster Presbyterian church of Youngstown last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Beecher is among the most accomplished elocutionists in this coun-She spent her early life in Mineral Ridge and nearly twenty wears ago graduated from the N. E. O. N.

A chicken supper will be served at Zion Reformed church, north of the village, next Wednesday evening, from 5:30 to 7:30 to which the public is cordially invited. Expense, 25 cents. Conveyances will be provided free of charge both ways for people the village who desire to attend. Meet at the Morris drug store corner After the supper Attorney W. S. Anderson of Youngstown will deliver an

-C. S. Dodd has rented of Rev. J. C. Schaaf what is known as the Whittlesey office on North Broad street will be occupied as a real estate and insurance office. The building was erected many years ago by the late Elisha Whittlesey, the first comptroller of the U. S. Treasury, where his books and papers were placed for safe keeping. Some years since the most valuable historical documents were secured by the Western Reserve Historical Association and removed to Cleveland.

-Joe Marinelli, who was murdered last Saturday night while eating his supper in a Youngstown restaurant, was a skilled stone cutter and worked on the Lethodist church of this place nearly five years ago. He was a sober, industrious young man, aged about 25 years. While here he board ed at the home of P. T. Jones. He ad been here several times since leaving to visit the Jones family. Marinelli had some trouble with Andy Crico and as he was eating his supper Saturday night Crico slipped up behind sim and stabbed him in the back. Crico fied with Marinelli in pursuit but the wounded man soon fell in the street and died. The murderer has not yet been captured.

-For more than a year Bert Johnston, who resides north of the vil-lage, and who has met with much success as a trapper, has been trying to capture an animal having a den in an abandoned coal mine on d. H. Beardsley's farm in the northwestern part of this township. Monday morning he was much delighted to find in his traps a large gray fox that had been able to break the fastenings of been able to break the fastenings of the chains and crawl far back into the mine. Mr. Johnston got near the animal and by the fire in its eyes was able to shoot it. He then found that what had been supposed to be a lynx, judging from tracks in the snow which were unlike those of the ordinary fox, was a gray fox. The animal had a tightly drawn heavy wire around its neck and one about its body. A year ago Mr. Johnston set wire snares for the animal but it always managed to break away. The hide of the fox was considerably damaged by the wire bands that had so long ancircled it.

-There are 264 inmates in the

-The weather: Unsettled Friday, noderate temperature.

who reside on the Sanzenbache: farm east of the village. -A family horse about 31 years old owned by M. B. Chidester of this township got down in a stall last Friit necessary to shoot the animal. -Last Saturday morning the mercury was reported anywhere from 12 to 32 degrees below zero in this lo-cality. Many thermometers in different parts of town registered 20 degrees below zero.

-The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyter-ian church will hold its annual meeting and tea in the church parlor Wednesday, Feb. 21, at 2 o'clock. As this is the last meeting of the year all money barrels should be brought Buchwalter have ordered a car of or sent in.

—At the meeting of Dublin grange in Odd Fellows' hall Tuesday night four candidates received the first degree. Several others petitioned for membership and at the next meeting work will be done in several degrees. During the rast few weeks the membership of the organization has been considerably increased.

-A thoroughbred Jersey cow be-longing to John Riley of this township began ailing some time since and last Friday it became necessary -The noodle supper served Wed-nesday evening by the ladies of the that she had swallowed a piece of that she had swallowed a piece of wire used in fastening a feed bag and this had become securely imbedded in the small stomach.

-In College Chapel at 9:30 a. m. dress on "Preventable Blindness." Mr. Shafer is a pleasing speaker and as the subject he is to discuss is of Death of Mrs. Ell T. Arner. Mrs. Anna H. Arner, wife of Eli T. Arner, died in the county infirmary last Saturday forenoon from the effects of a stroke of paralysis sustained in the morning. Mrs. Arner was born in Ellsworth township 86 years ago, her maiden name being Harkle-rode. Her husband at one time was one of the largest land owners in Mahoning county, but reverses came and his property was swept away. For some time the aged couple had been physically unable to care for themselves, and being without means were on Jan. 22 taken to the county en the best possible care in the in--George Dunning recently sold to firmary and Mr. Arner shows considable to attend their mother's funeral "n account of sickness. A granddaughter, Miss Yates, of Montana, arrived Wednesday night. She did much in a financial way for quite a number of years for her aged ancestors. Mrs. Arner's funeral will be held at the infirmary Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock, in charge of Rev. M. G. Jerrow, pastor of the Lalsworth

Presbyterian church, of which the deceased was a member. The choir of the same church will sing. The remains will be laid to rest in the fam-

Methodist Episcopal Church-Forest H. Hill, Minister. 9 a. m. Sunlay school. 10 a. m. public worship and sermon. Subject, "The Christian's Confidence." 2 p. m. Junior League. 5:30 p. m. Epworth League. Miss Leslie Reece, leader. Topic, "The Call to Service." 6:30 p. m. song service and sermon. Subject, "The Great Sal-vation." The pastor will preach at both services. Inursday evening meetings at 7 o'clock. You will find welcome at all of these services. Presbyterian Church-Sunday school next Sunday at 9:30 a. m. Preaching at 10:30. Subject, "The Rising Road." C. E. meeting at 5:30 p. m. Subject, "When to Say Yes and No." Leader, Harry Manchester, There will be no evening service as the pasor, Rev. R. E. Pugh, will at that time begin a week's evangelistic meetings in the Concord church

UNION SCHOOL REPORT

The following pupils were perfect n attendance during the month of January: Gramar Department-James Nash, Urban Callahan, Elta Goodman, Eliz-abeth Tate, Nila Waters, Charles Gee, Dorothy Kline, Esther Kimerle, Ruth Weikart, Carl Liddle, Leo Fosnacht, George Skelton, Russell Wise, Ina Clay, Olive Givin.

Wm. Parshall, Teacher Intermediate—Ruth Clay, Racnel Cushing, Glen Cook, Lois Cook, Thelma Dickson, Emma Hake, Dorothy Heckel, Leland Lynn, Charlotte Manchester, Robert Manchester, Bryan Tate, Orrin Tate.

Mabel Dyball, Teacher.

Primary—Ethel Harding, Margery Neff, Ralph Beard, Robert Baird, Doris Coe, Mahlan Kirkpatrick, Alta Clay, Emmor Myers, Jay Cook ,Wilda Andrews, Thomas Ruscitto, Nila Beatrice Arnold, Gilbert Delfs, Lloyd Andrews.

Blanche Calhoun, Teacher.

CHARGED WITH DYNAMITING.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 14—From the Atlantic to the Pacific arrests were made today of labor leaders indicted in the government dynamite probe. In Cleveland Peter J. Smith, business agent, and George H. Anderson, member of the Structural Iron Workers' Union, were taken into cus-tody, and in Cincinnati Edward Clark and Ernest Loveman were arrested. It was authoritatively stated by the department of justice in Washington today that neither Samuel Gompers nor any other officer of the Federa-tion of Labor is implicated in any way in the dynamite prosecution.

An Appropriative Subscriber. Akron, O., Feb. 10, 1912.

Canfield, Ohio. Dear Sir:—Enclosed find, money der for five dollars. You have eved us faithfully these many years with the worthy Dispatch. May I call this a leap year token of ap-

Very kindly your friend,
ISAAC W. HEWITT.
Many thanks, friend Hewit. May your shadow never grow less.

AUSTINTOWN

Feb. 14-The heating stoves in the Reformed church have been repaired and there need now be no fear of being compelled to sit in a cold church. -A son, dead at birth, was born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. John Riley, During the severe weather there was some complaint, but there will be no further trouble along that line.

Mrs. Clem Brickley is sick. Quite a number of autoists from considerable distance passed through day and broke one of its legs, making here this week to attend the auto show in Youngstown.

Merrill Baker took a sled load of people to Chas, Sanzenbacher's in Canfield township Tuesday night and all had a fine time. In the jarty farm to parties from Lima, Mr. Non-were Mr. and Mrs. John McAleer, nemaker is now in Kansas seeking Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Higgins, Wm. Sigle and family, Mrs. Joseph Smith, R. W. Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Fusselman and dauhgter, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn DeCamp, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mulleneaux, Miss Hattie Martiu, W. S. May and Calvin Ohl.

Dr. Schnurrenberger and Frank shavings for bedding stock, straw having become scarce and high-

Until the sun got busy today the sleighing had been better this week than at any time this winter. Frank DeCamp purchased a corn crib on the McKnight farm and has moved it to his farm in Canfield Miss Hattle Martin has gone to Cleveland to spend a few weeks.

C. W. Russell is slowly recovering from his illness.

W. H. Brickley will move his saw mill from the Lanterman place to John Moherman's where he purchased considerable standing timber.

As the law now requires that fruit rees be sprayed Joe Smith has purchased a stock of sprayers to meet all demands in that direction.

GREENFORD

Feb. 15-The 48th anniversary o the founding of the order of Knights of Pythias will be celebrated by Greenford lodge in its hall next Saturday evening. An enjoyable time s anticipated.

Charles Clark of Salem, who has been sick all winter, is slowly recovering and spent several days the past week with relatives in this place. Miss Ethel Gutterba, a student in the Normal college at Canfield, spent Sunday here with relatives. Geo. L. Bush is confined to his home by sickness.

C. L. Toot will plant an orchard of 800 peach trees the coming spring. It won't be long now until bad roads will cause much discussion of Here's hoping that the backbone of vinter is broken. Many robins have appeared in this locality.

M. C. Callahan is still suffering considerable pain from injuries received last week while returning nome from Youngstown. The Greenford mill operated by Fred Mattix is one of the very few country grist mills in the county. This mill does a fine business. Weather for some time has been too cold to ship potatoes. Many farmers in this locality lost tubers by freezing.

Mrs. C. J. Roller spent last Saturday in Youngstown, being the guest of Miss Lucy Hartman.

SHADY HOLLOW

er and family spent Sunday with the Favette Heintzelman spent Sunday Pleasant Grove.

A sled load from this vicinity were at Mrs. Boyer's near Canfield, Tueslay night. The evening was spent games and other amusements and at a late hour a sumptuous lunch was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Heintzelman, Mrs. Geo. Boyer, Misses Eva Bare, Pearl Schaefer, Lottie Kvle, Esther Heint-Mary Bair, Mabel Boyer, Messrs. Fay Heintzelman, Alvin Bare, Clyde Hixson, Geo. Messerly, Ray Kyle, Ora Auble, John Heintzelman, Howard Kyle and Kenneth Heintzel-

Visitors of Geo. Minard's Sunday were Elmer Rothgeb and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith, Mr. Will Gels

CONGERVILLE.

Feb. 14—This settlement is located near Sebring. H. M. Conger bought a new sleigh last week. The sleighing has been fine since the snow came Sunday night. Mrs. John Morrison is among the

Mrs. W. S. Clay and son Bert visted here last week with her daugher, Mrs. John Callahan.

Robt. Young, wife and daughter of Sebring visited friends here Sunday. People here are inconvenienced in getting water as the pipe line is froz-

Geo. Henry of Sebring was here nis auto Sunday and visited H. M. John Callahan spent Saturday in North George town. NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

-A blue X on the margin of the Dispatch means that payment on subscription is desired. -Austin Huntley, a native of Trumbull county, died Tuesday night in Warren, aged 62. -Frank Grimm, aged 48, while weeping snow from a railroad switch in Lowellville, Monday, was struck by a car and so badly injured that eath resulted. His wife and one son survive him. -Thomas Barber of Beloit, aged 50 years, was stricken with paralysis last Sunday and death resulted Tuesday night. Funeral services Thursday morning were held from the residence of Wm. Owen and burial was in the Damascus cemetery. —Jonas Musser, a native of Board-man township, died Wednesday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Daniel Meeker, near Poland from the effects of a stroke of paralysis, aged nearly 81 years. His wife died several years ago. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Meeker of Poland and Mrs. D. A. Christman of Canfield, and three sons, Edward, Lewis and William of Boardman. Funeral services Interment will be made in Pleasant

LORDSTOWN

Feb. 14-Saturday evening a party of friends to the number of sixty, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Shively, games and music furnished the amusements, a jolly time was the verdict of all present.

Mrs. C. F. Kreitler, Monday, while carrying a small armload of wood into her kitchen, fell, spraining her right wrist quite badly. Miss Angle and Messrs, Roscoe and Bayard Sowers, of Newton Falls were guests Sunday at the home of their aunts, the Misses Sowers. C. F. Nonnemaker has sold his that Joseph Wilson has sold his farm.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

An enjoyable surprise party was given Devaux Schrum at the home of his parents on Water Street last Saturday evening in honor of his 26th birthday. A very pleasant time was had. Games, vocal and instrumental music were the order of the evening. An excellent supper was served at Midnight when a set of ebony military brushes was presented to the host. Following was the guest list: Mr. and Mra. Glen McMahon, Miss Laura Haefka, Lawrence Haefka and Carl Ryder of West Austintown, Miss Della Taylor and Thomas Schrum of Canfield, Edith Boyle, Lydi Geiber, Hannah Geiber, Madge Wehr, Pearl Wehr, Blanche Schrum, Grace Wallet, Roy Davis, Peter Corll, Perry Wehr, Clyde Schrum of Youngstown

WHAT PEOPLE READ IN THE DISPATCH 25 YEARS AGO.

Eggs plenty at 16c a dozen. Mrs. A. W. Teats is recovering from severe illness. C. G. Beardsley of Lordstown visted relatives here this week. Josiah Wehr of Cornersburg is re covering from a painful illness. Rev. John McLean died Tuesday n Elyria. He was 81 years old. L. Zimmerman has opened a meat market in the Caldwell building. The W. C. T. U. will meet Saturday night at the home of Dr. J. P. Cessna. Frank Ogline has gone to Los Angeles, Cal., where he secured employ J. H. Whittenberger has been appointed postmaster in New Middle Sylvanus Flickinger of Boardman township killed five coon on one tree the other night. Last Friday's storm was the most severe that has visited this section in a long time. Henry Burgett of this township is suffering from a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

C. R. Wetmore opened his sugar camp last week and reports having gathered 12 barrels of sap one day.

J. H. Blackburn has purchased farm of 90 acres at Fowler, Trumbull county, and will take possession April 1.

PUBLIC SALES

The undersigned will offer at public sale at his residence, 1% miles southwest of Columbiana, O., on the Elkton road, 10 minutes' walk from the Y. & S. car stop, Lisbon road, Monday, Feb. 19, 1912, commencing at 12 o'clock m., rain or shine, 300 to 400 bushels of choice seed pota-Feb. 14—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Meek-Hastings. These potatoes are c. new and distinct variety. Their habits are a sight to behold: requires only 5 to 6 bushels of seed to the acre. n Youngstown and Sunday evening if they are planted 32x36 in. The vines are strong, vigorous growers and cover the ground so that one cannot count the rows. One single eye produced vines that weighed from 12 to 14 lbs. each. They are practically immune to blight and bugs; enormous producers, yielding fully one-half more than any other variety we had. 150 bushels turnips, 21/2 acres of strawberries, 100 potato or apple baskets, one-horse wagon, new; potato digger, weeder, harrow, 2 cultivators, spring wagon for hauling berries, good single work harness and other articles. Were it not for Mrs. Stouffer's serious case of rheumatism these potatoes would have been shipped throughout April, May and June and Mrs. Ray Smith, Mr. Will Geis to farmer customers for seed at a of Youngstown and Fred Friese and long price. Mr. Stouffer is disabled What a comfort it is to have the Dispatch while sitting by the fire this ana, O. L. J. Farmer, Pulaski, N. Y.

Letter to J. Delfs & Sons Canfield, Ohio.

Dear Sir: A bank messenger lost a small coin. He set his bag down and looked for it. Found it, but somebody-else had run-off with his A man who is going to paint had better look-out for his gallons. De-voe is the least-gallons paint. It's gallons that cost; it isn't the price of a gallon. With one paint, 10 gallons is plenty; another, 11 or 12 or 13 and so on to 22 gallons; and every gallon has to be paid-for and painted-$2 to $4 a day for painting paint stuffed-out with some sort of whitewash. The less the price of gallon, the more the gallons.

Bank messengers better look-out for heir bags and not stop to hunt for small coin; and property-owners bet ter look-out for the gallons that make he expense, and not for the price which has nothing to do with it. Yours truly F W DEVOE & CO

F. A. Morris sells our paint.

THE CANFIELD MARKET.

Dealers are paying the following rices for produce: Butter, rolls, 80c pound. Butter, prints, 30c pound. Eggs, 30c dozen. Retail Prices Butter, rolls, 32c pound. Butter, prints, 32c pound. Cherry Valley Creamery butter, 40 ents round. Eggs, 32c dozen. Honey, 22c pound. Celery, 3 bunches 10c. Potatoes, 30c peck. Cranberries, 14c quart. Granulated sugar, 25 pounds, $1.47 Bananas, 15 and 20c doz. Cabbage, 3c b. Popcorn, 5c pound. Lettuce, 20c pound.

Earthquake shocks in Japan are They average more

Lettuce, 20c pound. Oysters, 35c quart.

The abstract of title in its production is usually confined to data obtainable from the public record. Not infrequently does it happen that there are facts, vital to the title under examination, which are not disclosed by the

Our policy of title insurance must cover not only record facts, but facts not found on the record. Thus we give you all the protection possible.

The Realty Guarantee Trust Co..

Capital Stock $200,000.00 Public Square Members American Association of Title Men.

HARP OF VARIOUS THINGS

WANTED-Jersey · Holstein cow. Canfield phone 105.

FOR SALE—Six registered Jersey heifers. B. E. Frederick, Poland, U., R. D. New phone 7 on 1261.

FOR SALE—200 sap pails and crocks at 5c each if sold before March 1. Z. F. Johnston, Canfield R. D. 1.

FOR SALE—Residence property in Greenford. Address M. C. Callahan, Greenford, O. New

FOR SALE—Range with reservoir in good con-ition. S A. McNeilly, killsworth, O., Jackson Phone 5 on 45. FOR SALE-Three thoroughbred Berkshire soars. C. E. Bowman & Son, Berlin Center, O

WANTED—Copies of the Dispatch from May to September, 1907. Myrtle Holland, Youngstown, New phone 1042 M 1 ring. FOR SALE—Cheap, one Oxford incubator: also welve Buff Orpington pullets and Buff Rock cock-rels. Lee Milter, Calla, 0.

FOR SALE—Cooking and heating stoves, chairs, ab c, stand, disher, canned fruit, bricklayers cools. Mrs. Roy McWilliams, Caufield.

WANTED—Man to work on farm, single and of good habits. Enquire of James S. Price, Youngs-own, O., R. D. No. 2, Box 103. Bell phone 969.

WELL DRILLING-We can drill any size nole up to 11 inches. All work guaranteed. S. C. Coy, Columbiana, O., R. D. No. 1. Beaver phone. FOR RENT—Farm of 25 acres. Large house and barn, good orchard, small fruits. Inquire at Room 602, Dollar Bank Building, Youngstown, O. New phone 125 R.

REAL ESTATE OFFICE—C. S. Dodd has open-od a real estate and insurance office in the Schaaf building on North Broad street, Canfield, and sc-licits the public patronage.

REAL ESTATE—C. S. Dodd will be pleased to list your farm, village or city property for sale. Main effice Canfield. Youngstown effice 701 Ma-honing National Bank Building.

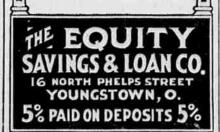

WANTED-Carpet rag balls to make thirty (30) yards of carpet. Rags must be clean and wellsewed. Address, Mrs. L. T. Davis, 1440 Florence dale avenue. Yeungstown, Ohio. FOR SALE—A 6-year old mare well broken, weighs about 900 pounds; a buggy, spring wagon, piano bed sleigh and two sets of harness, extra tuge and collar. Apply to Wm. A. Cox, Washington-ville, O.

FOR SALE-Buggies, farm wagons, plows, harrows, team, farm and buggy harness, collars, repair straps, storm fr. nts. etc. Second hand stocksurries, 2 one horse wagons, buggy. J. W. Jahn ston, Canfield, Ohio. Phone 81.

The Highest Protection

As a result of the uniformly careful policy pursued by this Company in loaning its money during the eleven years it has been in business it has never had a single piece of unsatisfactory business on its books, nor has it ever lost a dollar either for itself or its customers, You are cordially invited to avail yourself of the unexcelled protection we afford for savings. 5 per cent Compound Interest

Spraying Material

We are able to quote the following prices on the following for spraying: ARSENATE LEAD PASTE. 100-lb. keg, per pound 50-lb. keg, per pound keg, per pound150 keg, per pound18c 5-lb keg, per pound20c 2-lb. keg, per pound22c 1-lb. keg, per pound25c LIME SULPHUR SOLUTION

Barels holding approximately 50 gallons, per gallon16c Barrels holding approximately 50 gallons, per gallon20c Five gallon cans, per gallon35c Get your orders in early and be sure of having your material when wanted. Goods carried in stock. No freight to pay.

Phone 103, Canfield, Ohio ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

THE STATE OF OHIO, MARONING COUTTY, 88. In the Cour of Pro ate.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigner has been superinted and qualified Administrator of the estate of Mollio McCollum, late of Mahoning Caunty, O., deceased, by the Probanication of said county. All persons interested wit govern themselves accordingly.

ALEX ANDER S. McCOLLUM, Admr. January 9, 1912.

The difficulty with those people who do not know much is that they can-not refrain from telling it.

We Have Sold

A Great Many Overcoats

During this cold weather at a great saving to every purchaser, and we can do the same for you. The difference you save in buying at Wiesner's will buy you a good Cap, Mittens, Underwear or other Winter wearables for which you would have to pay extra in buying elsewhere or in more expensive towns. We still have a few of the latest cut Overcoats in smooth or rough finish which we are offering at a great reduction to close out. Step in to see them. They run from $6 to $20, and would cost you from $2 to $5 more elsewhere. We also show a nice line of Cravenettes, Slip-ons, and Raincoats at special prices.

Every Winter Suit must go. You will save from $2 to $5 while the clearance sale lasts and the broken lots hold out.

Only a few more fine Fur Caps left at $2.25 to $4.00. See us for Underwear, Gloves, Mittens, Flannel Shirts, Boys' Suits and Overcoats, Sweater

A. WIESNER, CANFIELD OHIO

Five Acres Cultivated Land FREE

To prove the productiveness of our land, we will give the first ten industrious people of Youngstown and vicinity, locating at Campville Farms, Florida, the use of five acres of choice cultivated land for one year absolutely

You can plant this land to such crops as you choose and the entire revenue you receive from same will be absolutely your own. Campville is 65 miles South of Jacksonville, the best market in Florida. It is the healthiest portion of the State. No swamps. No drainage needed. No fever. Excellent Water. Only 12 miles from State Agricultural College and United States Government Experimental Full particulars, maps, etc., furnished at our office. Open evenings from 7:30 to 9:00.

McCAIN REALTY CO.,

303 Mahoning Bank Building YOUNGSTOWN. OHIO **********************

The Salem-Alliance Business Colleges

SALEM, OHIO

Experienced teachers, fine equipment, established reputation. Over 2,000 students have been trained for success by our schools. Ask any banker or business man in this vicinity regarding our reputation for thoroughness. Now is the best time to enroll for a trial month. Write for information regarding tuition rates and courses of study.

W. H. MATTHEWS, Principal.

REAL FARMER

Cannot afford the time for learn about Land Titles. He takes someone else's word about his titles. "The Modern Method in Land Titles" (96 pages copyrighted) tells him how to guar antee his title. We have enough for every farmer or farm own er in Mahoning county.

Fill in the coupon and send with 4 cents in stamps for your The Realty Guarantee & Trust Co. Youngstown, Ohio

The Realty Guarantee & Trust Company

Send me free of charge your book on Land Titles.

men, when talking about a

-- Agents For ---FORD and RAMBLER CARS

The Dodd Auto Livery &

Repair Co.

OHIO

CANFIELD, - -

Phones 802

All kinds second hand cars for sale at from $100

T. D. CARPENTER FUNERAL DIRECTOR

Licensed Embalmer.

New York's Pride